The Life of Grandma Mary Persimmon

Grandma Mary Persimmon was born into slavery in 1849. She was raised by her grandmother, who taught her the importance of family, food, and community. After the Civil War, Grandma Mary moved to Texas, where she met and married her husband, Alfred. Together, they had 12 children, and Grandma Mary became a pillar of her community.

Grandma Mary was a skilled cook, and her recipes were known throughout the region. She was also a generous woman, and she often shared her food with those in need. Grandma Mary lived a long and full life, and she died in 1954 at the age of 105.
