By W.T. Allison Dolan

Living With Max is a deeply moving and inspiring memoir that chronicles the author's journey of love, loss, and healing after the unexpected death of her beloved golden retriever, Max. Through raw and honest storytelling, the book explores the profound impact that pets have on our lives and the transformative power of grief.

Dolan's writing is both lyrical and deeply personal, as she weaves together memories of Max's life with her own experiences of grief and loss. She writes about the joy that Max brought into her life, from his playful puppyhood to his gentle and loving old age. She also writes about the pain of losing him, and the way that his death forced her to confront her own mortality.

Living With Max is a powerful and moving tribute to the special bond between humans and animals. It is a book that will resonate with anyone who has ever loved and lost a pet. But it is also a book about hope and healing, and the power of love to overcome even the most profound loss.
