

Void of Course Moon: Dates and Times to Avoid Decision-Making

Understanding Void of Course Moon

In astrology, the Moon is a planet that governs emotions, intuition, and subconscious mind. When the Moon is in its final stages of a sign and has no more major aspects to other planets, it is considered "Void of Course" (VOC).

During this period, the Moon's influence is weakened, and it has less power to act or manifest. As a result, it is generally advised to avoid making major decisions or taking significant actions while the Moon is VOC.
